TA Investment Management Berhad Opens Business Centre in Ipoh

Ipoh, 5 January 2021 – TA Investment Management Berhad (“TAIM”) has opened a business centre in the city of Ipoh, Perak, on 31 December 2020.

The new TAIM business centre, located across the road from AEON Kinta City in the Arena Niaga Simee commercial area, represents a major milestone for the fund management company which has seen rapid growth over the year of 2020 with its Assets Under Management (AUM) rising over 90%.

“We are excited to establish a new business centre in Ipoh to better service our clients, consultants and partners in the region. The new business centre will help us extend our reach to businesses and individuals in the area who could benefit from our broad coverage of investment solutions and we look forward to expanding the company and welcoming new customers in Ipoh. We are also looking for highly motivated talents to join us as consultants to provide investment services to the local community,” said Wong Mien, Chief Executive Officer of TAIM.

The expansion serves to establish TAIM as a one-stop investment management solution for investors in the region and the management of TAIM is continuously focusing on product improvement, innovation and customer satisfaction.

TAIM, a subsidiary of TA Securities Holdings Berhad, was founded in 1995 with a long history of managing client assets over many market cycles. As of 30 November 2020, TAIM has total assets of over RM5 billion, being a combination of unit trust funds and direct mandate portfolios under its management. Its investment portfolio comprises a wide spectrum of funds ranging from low to high risk and caters to the different financial needs and objectives of investors.

TAIM manages thirty-five (“35”) global and local funds, drawing upon TAIM’s internal fund management expertise as well as through TAIM’s various strategic partnerships with the likes of Fullerton Fund Management Ltd, Lion Global Investors Ltd, Janus Henderson Investors Limited, Ninety One UK Limited, Columbia Threadneedle Investments, Merian Global Investors (UK) Limited and several others, leveraging on their experience and expertise investing in regional and global markets.

TAIM currently distributes over a hundred global and local funds as well twenty-five (“25”) Private Retirement Schemes (“PRS”) with ten (“10”) local asset management companies across various asset classes and are looking to expand the product shelf further.
