This is a multi-asset fund that will be investing in various asset classes such as equities, equity-related securities, fixed income instruments, collective investment schemes and/or Liquid Assets. The selection of investments will be made based on the geographical and asset class focus to broaden investment reach.

The investors may gain from the appreciation of unit price as a result of the increase in value of the underlying and/or accrual interest earned. However, investment involves risk. The value of the Fund may rise or fall. Distribution (if any) may be declared out of the income and/or capital of the Fund. These risk factors, among others, may cause you to lose part or all of your investment.

KEY RISKS

6. What are the key risks associated with this product?

Specific risks associated to the Fund

External Investment Manager's Risk

The investments of Fund are managed by the External Investment Manager. The Manager has no control over the External Investment Manager's investment technique, knowledge or management expertise. In the event of mismanagement of the Fund by the External Investment Manager, the NAV of the Fund would be affected negatively. The Fund would also be affected should there be any unresolved dispute between the Manager and the External Investment Manager. Although the probability of such occurrence is minor, should the situation arise, the Manager reserves the right to seek an alternative external investment manager to replace the External Investment Manager.

Currency Risk

As the investments of the Fund may be denominated in currencies other than the Base Currency, any fluctuation in the exchange rate between the Base Currency and the currencies in which the investments are denominated may have an impact on the value of these investments. Investors should be aware that if the currencies in which the investments are denominated depreciate against the Base Currency, this will have an adverse effect on the NAV of the Fund in the Base Currency and vice versa. Investors should note that any gains or losses arising from the fluctuation in the exchange rate may further increase or decrease the returns of the investment.

The Fund may offer Units in multiple currency Classes, which will expose the Unit Holder to currency risk in respect to the currency of Units of a Class other than the Base Currency.

(i) Currency risk at the hedged Class level

Investors in the hedged Classes may be subjected to currency risk due to imperfect hedging by the Manager when the Manager hedges the respective currency against the Base Currency. However, investors should note that hedging is subject to a minimum investment size of entering into a forward contract and the unhedged portion of the respective hedged Classes may still be affected by the exchange rate movement which may result in fluctuation of NAV of the respective hedged Classes. In addition, investors in the hedged Classes should note that by employing this hedging, investors would not be able to enjoy the additional currency gains when the Base Currency moves favourably against the currency of the hedged Classes. Additional transaction costs of hedging will also have to be borne by investors in these hedged Classes.

Investors in the hedged Classes should also note that in the event if the size of the hedged Classes is relatively small, the Manager may not hedge the respective currency of the hedged Classes against the Base Currency if it is of the view that the hedging is not in the interests of the Fund and/or Unit Holders.

(ii) Currency risk at the non-hedged Class level

For investors in the non-hedged Classes, the impact of the exchange rate movement between the Base Currency and the currency of the respective non-hedged Classes (other than USD Class) may result in a depreciation of the investor's holdings as expressed in the Base Currency.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk exists when a particular investment is difficult to purchase or sell. The Fund's investment in illiquid securities may reduce the returns of the Fund because it may be unable to sell the illiquid securities at an advantageous time or price and difficult to value. To mitigate the liquidity risk, the External Investment Manager will monitor the minimum threshold for daily liquidity of the investment of the Fund. In the event the investments of the Fund may not be able to be liquidated within a specific period of time, or may be sold below their valuation due to insufficient liquidity in the markets, this will negatively impact the NAV of the Fund and the investments of the Unit Holders.

Derivatives Risk

Unless otherwise specified, derivatives (which may include, but not limited to, options, swaps, futures and forwards) may be used and only where the relevant investment guidelines permit.

The successful use of such instruments depends on the ability to accurately predict movements in stock prices, interest rates, currency exchange rates or other economic factors and the availability of liquid markets. If the External Investment Manager's prediction is incorrect, or if the derivatives do not work as anticipated, greater losses may be incurred than had derivatives not been used. While some strategies involving derivatives can reduce the risk of loss, they can also reduce the opportunity for gain or even result in losses by offsetting favourable price movements in other investments. This results in likelihood of high volatility of the NAV per Unit of the Fund.

Investments in derivatives may require the deposit of an initial margin and additional deposits of margin on short notice if the market moves against the investment positions. If no provision is made for the required margin within the prescribed time, derivatives investments may be liquidated at a loss.

The Fund may use futures to gain exposure to the performance of gold. The prices of gold futures are influenced by various macroeconomic factors such as, changing supply and demand relationships, climatic and geopolitical conditions, disease and other natural phenomena, trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control programmes and policies of governments (including government intervention in certain markets) and other unforeseeable events. The volatility of the Fund will also depend on the correlations between gold futures to which the Fund is exposed and such correlations may vary from time to time.

For hedged classes, the Manager may use forward contract for the purpose of hedging the foreign currency movement against the Base Currency.

Counterparty Risk

Investors in the hedged Classes of the Fund are subject to counterparty risk on the derivatives contract that may be entered into with the financial institutions for the purpose of hedging strategy. The Fund may enter into transactions in OTC markets, which will expose the Fund to the credit of its counterparties and their ability to satisfy the terms of such contracts. Any default by the counterparty would affect the NAV of the Fund. The Fund will only enter into derivatives contract that are issued by counterparty with a minimum long-term credit rating of investment grade (including gradation and subcategories). Where the counterparty is not rated, the counterparty must be guaranteed by the parent company of the counterparty which has an investment grade credit rating (including gradation and subcategories). In the event where the rating of the counterparty falls below the minimum required, or the counterparty ceases to be rated, analysis will be conducted by the Manager to assess the impact of unwinding the affected trades and replacement cost. The Manager should, within six (6) months or sooner, if the Trustee considers it to be in the best interest of the Unit Holders, take the necessary action to ensure that the requirements are complied with.

Commodities Risk – Gold

The Fund may use ETFs or futures to gain exposure to the performance of gold. The prices of gold ETFs and futures are influenced by various macroeconomic factors such as, changing supply and demand relationships, climatic and geopolitical conditions, disease and other natural phenomena, trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control programmes and policies of governments (including government intervention in certain markets) and other unforeseeable events.

The volatility of the Fund will also depend on the correlations between gold ETFs and futures to which the Fund is exposed and such correlations may vary from time to time.

Collective Investment Scheme Risk

- Underlying fund risk

This risk refers to any adverse effect on the collective investment schemes in which the Fund is investing in that will impact the NAV of the Fund. For example, the collective investment schemes may underperform its benchmark due to poor market conditions and as a result, the NAV of the Fund will be adversely affected since the performance of the Fund is dependent on the performance of the collective investment schemes. While the External Investment Manager will exercise due skill and care in selecting the collective investment scheme, it does not have control over the management of the collective investment schemes and there is no guarantee that the investment objective of the collective investment schemes will be met.

- Concentration Risk

The Fund's investment approach does not mandate diversification. Also, it may have a high percentage of its assets invested in one or more of the underlying funds. In addition, the managers of the underlying funds may take positions or engage in transactions in the same securities or in issues of the same asset class, industry or country or currency at the same time. Such lack of diversification could result in either large gains or losses depending on the performance of the underlying investments funds. Accordingly, the investment portfolio of the Fund may be subject to more rapid change in value than would be the case if it were required to maintain a diversified portfolio of investments.

- Multiple Levels of Expenses

The underlying funds have fees and expenses that are borne by the Fund. As a result, you will be subject to fees and expenses at the Fund's level and at the underlying funds' level. As a consequence, the direct and indirect costs borne by the Fund are likely to represent a higher percentage of the net asset value than would typically be the case with collective investment schemes which invest directly in equity and bond markets.

The managers of the underlying funds may also receive compensation based on the performance of their investments. Under these arrangements, the managers will benefit from the appreciation, including unrealised appreciation of the investments of such underlying funds, but they are not similarly penalised for realised or unrealised losses.

- Risks of Investing in ETFs

Although the Fund may invest in ETFs which track the performance of designated indices, the trading price of the ETFs may differ from the ETFs' net asset value. While the value of the ETFs will generally fluctuate with changes in the market value of the index shares, it will also fluctuate in accordance with changes in the supply and demand for the units in the ETFs on the regulated markets. It is impossible to predict whether units in an underlying ETF of the Fund will trade at, above or below their value at any given time.

Temporary Suspension of the Collective Investment Schemes Risk

If at any one point in time, the Fund holds substantial investment in collective investment schemes and the right of the Fund to redeem its shares of the collective investment schemes is temporarily suspended, the Fund may also be affected if the Fund does not have sufficient liquidity to meet redemption request from Unit Holder.

To avoid suspension of the Fund as a result of the temporarily suspension from the collective investment schemes, the Fund will hold adequate Liquid Assets and if the Liquid Assets are insufficient to meet redemption requests, the Manager will either liquidate the investments of the Fund in other instruments or seek temporary financing, considering which is in the best interests of Unit Holders. If the Manager has exhausted all possible avenues to avoid a suspension of the Fund, the Manager may as a last resort, in consultation with the Trustee and having considered the interests of the Unit Holders, suspend the redemption of Units where it is impractical for the Manager to calculate the NAV of the Fund due to market value or fair value of the material portion of the Fund's investment cannot be determined.

Please note that during the suspension period, there will be no NAV per Unit available and hence, any application for subscription, redemption or switching of Units received by the Manager during the suspension period will only be accepted and processed on the next Business Day after the cessation of the suspension. Unit Holders will be notified of the suspension and when the suspension is lifted.

Distribution Out of Capital Risk

Distribution may be paid out of capital when the realised gains or realised income of the Fund is insufficient to pay a distribution. Unit Holders in Class B, Class C, Class D and Class S should note that the payment of distribution out of capital represents a return or withdrawal of part of the amount the Unit Holders originally invested or from any capital gains attributable to the original investment. Such distribution may result in an immediate decrease in the NAV per Unit of the Class and in the capital that the Fund has available for investment in the future. As a result, capital growth may be reduced and a high distribution yield from distribution out of capital does not imply a positive or high return on Unit Holders' total investments.

Note:

Please refer to section "Risk Factors" of the Prospectus for further information. Please note that this is part of the specific risks associated to the Fund only. Unit Holders are required to refer to the full risks associated to the Fund in the Prospectus such as Equities Risk, Interest Rate Risk, Credit Risk, Investment in Non-Investment Grade Securities and Emerging Markets Risk.

Please be advised that if an investor invests in Units through an IUTA which adopts the nominee system of ownership, the investor would not be considered to be a Unit Holder under the Deed and the investor may consequently not have all the rights ordinarily exercisable by a Unit Holder (for example, the right to call for a Unit Holders' meeting and to vote thereat and the right to have the investor's particulars appearing in the register of Unit Holders of the Fund).

FUND PERFORMANCE

The basis of calculating and assumption made in calculating the returns:

$$\text{Percentage Growth} = \frac{N^1 - N^2}{N^2} \times 100$$

N¹ = NAV on the end of the period

N² = NAV on the beginning of the period

$$\text{* Average Total Return} = \frac{\text{Total Sub Period Returns}}{\text{Number of Sub Periods}}$$

$$\text{ Annual Total Return} = (1 + \text{Cumulative Return})^{N^3/N^4} - 1$$

N³ = Number of periods per year

N⁴ = Total number of periods

Factor in for unit split and distribution paid out (if any during the period)
